MAKES STATEMENT ON RECENT MEETING

President J. H. Hall, Jr., of Virginia State Federation of Labor Talks

IS NOT IN POLITICS

Efforts to Pull Down Will Only Strengthen Big Building—A More Endure Federation.

Portsmouth, Va., July 5.—In view of the many conflicting and misleading statements appearing in the press concerning the recent Convention of the Virginia Federation of Labor held in Alexandria, Va., followed by the withdrawal of several Richmond local unions from the State Federstion, the President, J. H. Hall, jr., who has just returned from the A. F. of L. convention, whilst not desiring or intending to be drawn into a newspaper controversy, as no good results to labor can come thereby, yet in justice to the large majority of the members of the convention who selected and elected a new regime as well as to the misguiding and misinformed rank and file who so thoughtlessly and blindly folowed those who have been honored by the Virginia Federation of Labor now for reasons known to themselves are apparently seeking its destruction; deem it desireble to issue the following statements of facts.

The convention was called promptly to order on the date set; viz June 2nd, 1919, and notwithstanding that the credential committee, appointed by President Wilcox, at his direction met the day before that date, yet they could not or would not make even a partial report on that date, thereby necessitating that the business of the convention be postponed another day thus prolonging the convention and costing the various unions whose delegates were in attendance several thousand dollars unnecessarily.

When this Wilcox-appointed Credential Committee did report, they recommended, and justly so, the seating of all negro delegates and President Wilcox, in his address took occasion to specifically welcome them to the convention; and later on interrupted the regular order of business to introduce a negro attorney, Giles Jackson, his friend, from Richmond, to address the convention just prior to the election of officers, although the time for speakers had passed. And another significant fact in this connection is that no comments or criticism of the negro as a delegate were heard before the election of officers. All the colored delegates from Richmond and Roanoke voted for Wilcox.

When the election did take place, notwithstanding that no judges or tellers were appointed and the secretary announced the vote as 192 for Hall to 168 for Wilcox, yet the tallies kept by various people on both sides showed a majority of over 50 for Hall, thus clearly demonstrating that President Hall received a majority of not only the negro votes, but also a substantial majority of the white delegates votes as well and he is justly proud to be the representative of all union men regardless of race, color, politics or religion. Thus conforming to the principles and doctrins of the American Federation of Labor and which has been so vividly reaffirmed by the A. F. of of L. Convention just closed, when practically all the international Presidents rose on the floor of the Atlantic City Convention to assure the negro that so far as their particular craft was concerned, the negro had the same rights and opportunities as any other member not only for his own protection but for that of his fellow workers as well; so that in electing negro, W. C. Paige, who was nominated by them as their chosen Representative on the executice board, the Virginia Federation of Labor was only according to them their Constitutional and just rights of representation for taxation.

Negro delegates have been admitted to the Virginia Federation of Labor for the past 17 years.

The real friends of labor can rest assured that all efforts to pull down will only serve to strengthen our hands in building a bigger, better and more enduring Virginia Federation of Labor.

J. H. HALL, Jr.
President Virginia Federation of Labor.

WANT 50,000 MEN

JACK DEMPSEY DEFEATS WILLARD

Speedy and One-Sided Bi Fistic Event Yesterday

NO SHOW FROM FIRST

Only Three Rounds, Occupying Nine Minutes—Former Champion Leaves The Ring Badly Used up.

Toledo, Ohio, July 5.—By virture of one of the speediest and most one-sided battles which ever decided a big fistic event Jack Dempsey, who may now wish to be known by his full voting name of Wm. Harrison Dempsey, yesterday became the world's champion heavyweight boxer.

To all intents and purposes he whipped the huge Jess Willard, favorite in the meager betting, in one round. Dempsey thought the refree had announced him winner and actually left the ring. But he was called back and the butchery continued for two rounds more, when Jess sitting in his corner with a bewildered look on his swollen countenance, failed to respond to the gong for the fourth round.

"It was no use to continue," said the ex-champion. "My strength went from me in the first round."

He sat there, apparently the most surprised man in the United States at the moment. His right eye was closed and that whole side of his face was swollen and blue with bruises. Blood covered his body and his arms hung so helplessly over the ropes that it seemed as if a child might give him further abuse without arousing his interest.

Dempsey was breathing hard when the fight ended, but it was from exertion and not from punishment. He escaped almost unhurt, but as he had been using his arms like trip- hammers on the anatomy of his opponent for nine crowded minutes in a sun that sent the thermometer to 110 degrees, his heart was still pumping at high pressure and he appreciated the breathing spell.

CARDINALS DEFEAT BERWYN

Because the Garfield Athletic Club baseball team of Washington, cancelled their game with the Cardinals to have been played here yesterday, and it was impossible to get another team to play, the Cardinals journeyed to Berwyn, Md., and trimmed the Berwyn Country Club nine by a 9 to 6 score.

Tomorrow the Navy Department aggregation is scheduled to play the Cardinals on the High School field at 3 o'clock.

HEALTH OFFICER'S SUGGESTIONS

Doctor Foulks Directs Special Attention to Milk

ASKS CO - OPERATION

Lacteal Fluid of High Bacterial Content Very Dangerous For Babies—Department Will Make Investigation

The prevailing hot spell renders it obligatory upon each person in the community to do everything possible to preserve the health of the city. Alexandria now enjoys an energetic and competent health department which is invoking co-operation upon the part of all. This time last year conditions in Alexandria were distressing, due to the large number of cases of typhoid fever. It is not so now, and it behooves every citizen to do his or her part towards keeping the city in a sanitary condition.

Health officer Louis E. Foulks publishes the following which should appeal to every one:

The health department is endeavoring, with the co-operation of the local dairymen, to furnish the citizens of Alexandria with as safe and nutritious milk supply as possible under existing conditions, and would call your attention to the following points:

1. Before engaging milk from any dealer be sure such dealer has a health department permit. Report all persons endeavoring to sell milk who do not possess such permit.

2. The Health Department is running a systematic analysis on the product of all dealers. To secure the safest and best milk call up the Health Department and ascertain which dealer is placing the best product on the market.

3. Milk of high bacterial content is very dangerous for babies. To use milk for feeding infants, of unknown sanitary quality, renders them liable to many intestinal troubles. Ask your doctor or call the Health Department for information on this subject.

4. Do not allow the milk to set on the door-step after being delivered. Place in refrigerator immediately and keep there. Do not remove from original container to store in another vessel. Do not allow uncapped bottles to set around. Guard against flies.

5. Co-operate with the dairymen by thoroughly washing bottles and returning them promptly.

6. The Health Department is a public Institution, conducted for the benefit of the people. The Department will be glad to investigate all reasonable complaints, and furnish any information available.

LOUIS E. FOULKS,
Health Officer.

DIRIGIBLE R-34 CROSSES OCEAN

Monster Air Ship Speedin Towards Mineola, L. I.

WAS FORCED TO LAND

When Last Heard From The Aerial Vessel Was Running at the Rate of Forty Miles an Hour.

Boston, July 5.—Plowing southward toward Long Island, the British dirigible R-34 apparently was making good progress on the last lap of her trans-Atlantic flight at 8.30 a. m. today,

Messages indicating she was off the northern New England coast were picked up by the naval wireless station here. Naval officers said her exact position was not known.

Roosevelt Field, Mineola, L. I., July 5.—The giant Handely-Page bombing plane, which left St. Johns, N. F., late yesterday was forced to land at 5.30 o'clock this morning, according to word reaching officials here early today. Officials were unable to learn where the landing was made. The Handley-Page machine had intended to land at Roosevelt Field and be on hand to welcome the R-34 when it arrived.

Montauk Point, L. I., July 5.—The Montauk wireless station picked up indirect messages from the R-34 early this morning, indicating that the big dirigible was at the head of the St. Lawrence river.

The R-34 was making about 40 knots an hour at that time, a speed that would bring her into Mineola around noon.

TO REMODEL HOME FOR CHILDREN

Structure to be Converted Into Apartment—Part For Children

NEED $10,000 FOR WORK

Appeal Made For Little Ones— All Asked to Aid in Movement—Children Now Have Summer Home.

Several meetings of the board of the Children's Home have been held with a view of reorganizing the work in a manner to meet the growing needs of Alexandria.

Plans are being perfected whereby the building at the southwest corner of Duke and Royal streets, will be remodeled into apartments.

It is proposed to rent a part of the building and the remainder will be held in reserve as a temporary home for children, a boarding house for girls and headquarters of the probation officer.

It is announced that a permanent home for the children will be erected in the country. A plot of ground containing twenty acres has been given for that purpose.

The proposed new building will have separate rooms for boys and girls with nursery for smaller children.

Miss Amanda Holt, who has done such excellent work during the past year in this city as probation officer under the direction of the federal government, and Police Judge L. H. Thompson, has terminated the period for which she was engaged.

Miss Holt again will be employed to continue this work and take up the new work.

At the present time there are eleven children in the county home, among whom is a little blind boy who has been placed in a school for the blind. His vacation and clothing, however, have to be provided for.

It is stated that the sum of $10,000 will be necessary to properly equip the home to be remodeled into apartments, etc., Rent from the building will go towards current expenses.

The people of Alexandria in the past have been very generous in their interest and support of the Children's Home and it is earnestly requested that they will continue to aid in the reorganization plans.

GET INVOLUNTARY BATH

Passengers on Norfolk Steamer Drenched From Stream From New Motor Engine

A number of passengers on Norfolk steamer, bound for Norfolk, which reached Alexandria at 7 o'clock last night were given an involuntary bath when struck by a stream from the new motor fire engine which was being given a test at the wharf of the Mutual Ice Company at the foot of Cameron street.

Th passengers, men and women and children, were crowded on the forward deck of the steamer and witnessed with interest the playing of the stream from the hose nozzle. Without warning they soon were drenched to the skin, the boat having ran into the stream and the passengers beat a hasty retreat to their staterooms and changed their clothing for the remainder of the voyage.

The test was conducted by Fire Chief Ogden and witnessed by a number of members of the city council among whom were members of the fire committee.

The test is said to have been perfectly satisfactory.

It is expected that the new engine, which will take the place of the Reliance engine, soon will be accepted and placed in service.

The test lasted three hours, from 6 until 9 o'clock, and was made under the various underwriters requirements.

REVOKES ORDER FOR ELECTION

Special Election Set for July 22 Will be Held Later.

The order entered June 14 last calling for a special election June 22 for the purpose of passing on the proposed new form of city government today was declared null and void by Judge Samuel G. Brent in the circuit court for this city.

Judge Brent entered an order revoking the order for the election.

This was done because of the failure to publish the order for the election thirty days prior to July 22. This, therefore, means that the court will be called upon to fix another date for the election in the near future. It is regarded as highly probable that the election will be held in August instead of July 22 as originally planned.

HALF HOLDAY EVERY WEDNESDAY

Retail Merchants Will Be ginning Wednesday Close At 1 P. M.

FORTY ONE TO CLOSI

This Schedule Will Be Maintained Every Wednesday During July and August.

The retail merchants of a community and their employees are more closely confined than in any other line of business. On Saturdays when other business places and offices take a half day off, the retail merchant and employees, on account of its being pay-day and the principal shopping day of the week, are confined to their stores until a late hour that night.

The Retail Merchants' Bureau of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce has been considering for some time the question of the retail merchants of our city closing their stores on Wednesday afternoons during the heated term. This has crystalized into splendid work on the part of some of its members and beginning with Wednesday, July 9th and continuing through the months of July and August, the following stores will be closed every Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock for the balance of the day.

SPENT A QUIET FOURTH

Alexandria yesterday spent an unusually quiet Fourth. Practically all business was at a standstill. Thousands of persons left the city early in the day for nearby resorts, and many will not return home until tomorrow night. During the afternoon hours the streets were deserted. Early in the evening, however, crowds soon started to Washington to witness the peace celebration in that city. Each outgoing train carried capacity crowds and several thousand persons made the trip.

There was absolutely no disorder here of any description and the law regarding the use of explosives was carried out.

FLYING ACROSS THE OCEAN

The British dirigible R-34 has made a sucessful flight across the Atlantic, the second airship to perform this feat within the past few months, the first one of American build. People interested in aerial travel now make forecasts that with in the next two years passenger lines via the heavenly route will be in operation.

We live in a wonderful age. Sixty years ago, after the proposition to lay a telegraph cable from Newfoundland to Ireland had been a subject of derision among the knowing ones of that day, communication was established between the two continents and continued for about two weeks. Some persons now living will remember the excitement that event produced in America nad Europe. Queen Victoria sent a cablegram of congratulation to President James Buchanan which was responded to by the American executive.

But more wonderful things were in store for this world. Several additional cables were subsequently placed on the ocean's bottom, and now the civilized world is in touch.

Wireless telegraphy has followed and many other useful discoveries are in evidence.

An exchange today contained a picture representing Uncle Sam astride the Capitol shaking hands with John Bull who is passing in a monster dirigible. Were Queen Victoria and James Buchanan alive they would have more to rejoice over now than the short lived cable messages of the latter part of the fifties.

HOT FOURTH OF JULY

It was generally conceded that yesterday, July 4, was the hottest Independence Day within the recollection of most people now living. The mercury began to soar early in the day, and at 4:30 in the afternoon it stood at 102 degrees in the shade in this city.

The high temperature deterred many persons who had planned picnics and excursions from carrying out their programs, and they remained at home, as the heat wave was dangerous. Some, however, carried out their plans, many patronizing public excursions and others hieing themselves to rural retreats where they passed the day in the shade. As is usual on the Fourth of July, numbers went to secluded spots on the river and near springs, where they lolled away the day.

Early in the night hundreds of Alexandrians mingled with the crowds on the grounds surrounding the Washington Monument in Washington, where a display of fireworks took place. It was nearing midnight when the visitors returned to their homes.

As was anticipated, yesterday was the occasion for a celebration of the birth of Liberty in other countries also. London was the scene of happy gatherings, as was also Paris. American flags were in profusion in both cities.

YESTERDAY'S "MILL."

The prize fight yesterday between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey for the championship of the world produced one of the most brutal scenes in the history of the "ring." The fight was virtually over after the first round, as it was then evident at the outset that the former champion was no match for his younger opponent. Within nine minutes the belt had slipped away from Willard and was being donned by the new heavy weight champion of the world.

Yesterday's encounter brings to mind other gruesome scenes of the ring. Willard's face is said to have been beaten into jelly, and with his right eye closed he clung to a rope of the ring afraid to relax his hold lest he fall to the ground.

In 1860 John C. Heenan, of the United States, and Tom Sayers, of England, fought for the championship of the world. One of Heenan's eyes was closed durng the encounter and his lip was split and hanging, while the muscle of one of his arms had been dislocated. The American stood in the ring a ghastly figure. The fight was declared a draw. In 1864 Heenan fought with Tom King, another Englishman, for the championship of the world. During that "mill" Heenan was badly used up. His lower lip, which had been split by Sayers, was reopened by King, but the American, presenting a ghastly spectacle, fought on until he was knocked out.

Willard's wife is said to be rejoicing over the fact that her husband was defeated. Dempsey's mother is represented as delirious with delight over the success of her off spring.

Many people are far from being interested in prize fights, such sports being regarded as brutal from start to finish. Some one has given the etymology of the world pugilist as follows: "A specimen of the genus homo with about as much brains as a sturgeon."

"AS THE TWIG IS BENT THE TREE'S INCLINED."

Recently two or three little boys, not over ten years of age, were seen on King stret attired in Wild West suits, each bearing a toy pistol in his holster. They rushed to and fro in imitation of scenes they had witnessed in moving pictures, where held ups had been portrayed.

The Detroit Free Press has the following to say of such juvenile precpsity:

"The small boy was propelling the coaster with great velocity. His passenger, a youngster about seven, shouted "Stop!" scrambled out, ran to the corner of the porch, screamed "Han'sup!" fired a toy pistol a couple of times, gripped a wad of paper, ran back to the waiting "automobile" calling "Git!" and a blank holdup had been successfully staged in a juvenile "movie."

"The childish imagination had evidently been stimulated by the stories of older boys, or by conversations at home, which had appealed to the love of action and adventure more or less strong in every child. Teachers know that the lively boy, overflowing with vitality, troublesome because of his effervescence into mischief, is the one whose energies, rightly directed, becomes the man of action and vision. How what a misfortune to have these early essays in imitation and initiative resultants of a perverted play impulse! To think a wrong action heroic is a bad beginning. There is a deep and underlying truth in the old adage, "As the twig is bent the tree's inclined."

"Little pitchers are eager listeners to the talk of other people, even when apparently unmindful. They absorb more than we generally imagine; it is a part of their development and of more importance than we think. What they do not comprehend at the moment often stays in the mind awaiting further knowledge.

"It is highly important to bend that young twig in the right direction."

OBSERVE THE LAW

No matter what may be our personal opinion of the "Wartime" Prohibition act, or of the constitutional amendment, there can be no dispute about the fact that until repealed they are laws. The Wartime Prohibition act may be based on untruthful assertions and may be a case of false pretnese, but it was passed by Congress and approved by the President. The constitutional amendment may violate a fundamental American principle, and may have been secured by skillful and organized pressure upon weak politicians and Legislatures; but, at any rate, it is law until repealed or declared unconstitutional.

It is argued that legislation secured through false pretenses or under political duress is not entitled to respect. It may not be entitled to moral respect, but it is entitled to legal respect. If all legislation obtained in these ways were disregarded there mght be popular revolt against a good many other laws.

The American way to meet the present situation is to make whatever fight is to be made through the courts or at the polls. Every grievance, every wrong can be removed or righted by these methods. If the majority of the American people do not want prohibition, no minority can fasten it on them permanently. Those who object to it have a right to agitate against it legally, to make a political fight for its repeal. To attempt to deny them that right would be to challenge the foundation principles of [illegible] these laws are legally nullified, their opponents have no right to declare them void and unconstitutional. It is their duty as American citizens to make their fight in American fashion.—(Baltimore Sun)

PHYSICALLY FIT AT ANY AGE

It isn't age, it's careless living that puts men "down and out." Keep your internal organs in good condition and you will always be physically fit.

The kidneys are the most overworked organs in the human body. When they break down under the strain and the deadly uric acid accumulates and crystallizes look out! These sharp crystals tear and scratch the delicate urinary channels causing excruciating pain and set up irritations which may cause premature degeneration and often do turn into deadly Bright's Disease.

One of the first warnings of sluggish kidney action is pain or stiffness in the small of the back, loss of appetite, indigestion or rheumatism.

Do not wait until the danger is upon you. At the first indication of trouble go after the cause at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, imported direct from the laboratories in Holland. They will give almost immediate relief. If for any cause they should not, your money will be refunded. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. None other is genuine. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

Gompers Says They Go Hand in Hand

Prohibition and Bolshevism go hand in hand, President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, charged Thursday in a message to the Senate Judiciary Committees, in which he cited Detroit as an example.

Forced dry 14 months ago by votes of Michigan farmers, Gompers declared Detroit was in a situation "charged with danger," owing to spread of radicalism and "deadly doctrines of the I. W. W."

"Should Bolshevik doctrines ever gain a foothold in this nation, which God forbid," wrote Gompers, "the prohibitionists will not be free from responsibility."

Bolshevism and I. W. W. organizers were unable to make headway in Detroit before Michigan went dry, according to Gompers. Now he said there were 21,800 members of the I. W. W. organization.

Gompers submitted to the committee a list of 125 papers and pamphlets which, he said, the Industrial Workers of the World agitators have distributed in millions throughout Michigan. Over 200,000 copies of the Russian soviet constitution, he said, have been sold in Detroit.

The Bolshevik teachings have made unusual headway, also among the miners in the copper mines of Northern Michigan, Gompers declared.

"The dissatisfied miners are turning toward radicalism in shoals," said Gompers. "The radicalism being taught in Detroit is born of class division and class antagonism and the hatred of all superiority either mental moral or physical. This class hatred is born of the feeling that Detroit workmen are forced to do without their beer while their rich employers are able to stock their cellars with enough to last a lifetime."

Emphasizing this Gompers declared one member of the Detroit Association recently spent $40,000 at a sale of the wine cellar of the late J. P. Morgan, The buyer, he said, was one of the foremost supporters of prohibition for Michigan.

Gompers also denied that Detroit has become really dry despite its stringent bone-dry laws. He offered figures to show that arrests for drunkeness increased under prohibition. He quoted other figures he said were obtained from a judge who declared there are 5,000 blind pigs and bootleggers in Detroit.

To get best results make a Soap Jelly by boiling 3 tablespoonfuls of Chips in a quart of water. Add enough of this solution to wash-water to make good suds. Wash as usual. An 8 oz. Package of 20 Mule Team Borax Chips equals 25c worth of ordinary laundry soap.

"Meats in Storage"

Every working day of the year 75,000,000 pounds of meat are required to supply home and export needs —and only 10 per cent of this is exported.

These facts must be kept in mind when considering the U. S. Bureau of Markets report that on June 1, 1919, there were 1,348,000,000 pounds of meats in cold storage. If the meat in storage was placed on the market it would only be 20 days' supply.

This meat is not artificially withheld from trade channels to maintain or advance prices.

Meats in storage consist of—65 per cent (approximate) hams, bacon, etc., in process of curing. It takes 30 to 90 days in pickle or salt to complete the process.

10 per cent is frozen pork that is to be cured later in the year.

6 per cent is lard. This is only four-fifths of a pound per capita, and much of it will have to go to supply European needs.

19 per cent is frozen beef and lamb, part of which is owned by the Government and was intended chiefly for over-seas shipment. If this were all diverted to domestic trade channels, it would be only 1½ lbs. per capita—a 3 days' supply.

100%

From this it will be seen that "meats in storage" represent merely unfinished goods in process of curing and the working supply necessary to assure the consumer a steady flow of finished product.

With 100,000 REO CARS in service, the records of the Reo Motor Car Co. for last year showed gross receipts for repair parts amounting to $700.000—an average of $7.00 per car.

When you consider that those 100,000 REOS— 20 per cent. were in the first year—25 per cent in their second year and the rest anywhere from three to fourteen years old, these figures are remarkable.

BOYS AND GIRLS, ATTEN-SHUN. JUNIORS SA-LOOT.

Boys and girls, do you want to hear a secret? Here is one—a dandy one: There is going to be more real fun at Junior Chautauqua this year than you ever had before. More games, more stunts, more folk-dances, more everything! That's because there are two Junior Leaders this year instead of one. Won't that be great?

As usual, Junior Chautauqua will meet in the mornings under the big tent from nine to eleven o'clock. Besides the story hour and songs, you will have your Junior Town meetings. Be ready to elect your Mayor, Clerk and Commissioners the very first day of Chautauqua, so that you can get a good start. There will be new work for Junior Town this year; real work, true work, honest work—the kind of work that makes every one of you glad that you are real citizens of your country. For, like all good citizens, we work hard and play hard at Chautauqua.

Every Junior will also have a part in the Junior Play, "THE WOP," which is presented on the last day of Chautauqua. That is a funny name for a play, "THE WOP"—do you know what it means? Come to the Junior Chautauqua and you will find out!

CAN'T WED GIRLS YET

Yanks Will Have To Wait Until Treaty Is Ratified

Coblenz, July 5.—Marriages between American soldiers and German women are forbidden by the army regulations pending ratification of the peace treaty by the United States and Germany. The Judge Advocate Department of the American forces on the Rhine Thursday night handed down a decision declaring that marriages under present conditions are illegal on the ground that the United States technically is still at war with Germany.

Officers said that any violations of this ruling would be prosecuted and that the offender would be tried either on a charge of communicating with the enemy or of disregarding fraternization regulations.

At army headquarters, however, inquiries continue to be received from soldiers eager to wed German girls. Since Saturday there have been so many reports with reference to the fraternization order that headquarters has issued a memorandum on the question of fraternization. The order says:

"The attention of all officers and enlisted men is called to the fact that no order has been issued revoking or in any way modifying the rules and regulations concerning fraternization and other dealings with or treatment of the civil population of the occupied areas."

All commands were instructed to see that the order received the widest publicity.

"Polly of the Circus"
AT CHAUTAUQUA
Five Sets of Scenery in This Play

SCENE FROM "POLLY OF THE CIRCUS"

"Polly of the Circus," that delightful American play, full of sentiment and dramatic interest, will be presented this year on Chautauqua with a full cast and five complete sets of scenery. Many have doubtless had the rare pleasure of seeing this drama presented. Chautauquans who have not seen it will have some idea of its popularity when they know that it is said by many to be even better than "The Man From Home" and "The Fortune Hunter." It will be given by a company of experienced players and with numerous stage accessories designed to produce a very realistic effect.

Just a true, native drama of the lives of the people we all know, and most of us love, is the best description that can be given of "Polly of the Circus," whose trials and triumphs have moved from smiles to tears and from tears to pure delight over a million happy playhouse patrons.

The story is just a compelling study of a tender child born and reared among the garish life of the circus tent, thrown by accident into the home of a young village clergyman, and there awakened to hope, to love, to knowledge, to God. There is a wholesome sweetness and a delightful charm about this drama that has given it high rank among the successes of the stage. Certainly it is without superior and has few equals in the way of clean entertainment.

This play ran for six straight months in New York city. It will be in your town for one night. Be sure to see it at Chautauqua.

REFUSES RIGHTS TO WOMEN

Emancipation Bill Thrown Out in Motion of Maj. Waldorf Astor.

London, July 5.—The women's emancipation bill, which has been before the House of Commons for some time, was defeated yesterday. The motion to reject was offered by Major Waldorf-Astor, and was carried by a vote of 100 to 85.

Maj. Astor announced that the government next week intended to introduce a bill to take the place of the emancipation bill. This bill would place men and women on equal terms in civil and judicial matters. The measure, Maj. Astor said, will be wide and comprehensive.

The women's emancipation bill was backed by the labor party. It was offered by its sponsors to bring about political and legal equality of men and women in Great Britain. Among other disqualifications of women to be removed by the bill was that preventing women from sitting in the House of Lords.

MAN DRINKS LINIMENT

Believed to be a victim of some patent medicine found in his pockets when he was picked up unconscious in front of Camden Station, Baltimore, on Tuesday, John Coulbourn, of Annapolis, Md., died Thursday at University Hospital without having regained consciousness.

Although he was unconscious when found, the man had every symptom of intoxication, and for this reason he is believed to have drunk the medicine for its alcoholic effects. The medicine was labeled liniment and the label said that it contained 50 per cent alcohol.

As near as can be learned, Coulbourn had been unconscious about four hours when taken to the hospital. Coroner Gorsuch has started an investigation of the man's death.

FLU KILLED SIX MILLION

Six million deaths from flu occurred in India last year, according to a report just issued by Major Norton White, sanitary commissioner. White said this exceeded the death rate from this disease in all countries of the world and is equivalent to half the mortality attributed to plague in the twenty-two years it has ravaged India. A curious fact is that flu deaths reached a higher proportion among British troops in India than among native troops.

PROHIBITION ISSUES

Leaders Fear Followers in Congress Are Weakening on Drastic Measures

Washington, D. C. July 5.—With a lull in legislative and other government activities on the question of enforcement laws for war-time prohibition brought about by the holidays, the dry forces have apparently redoubled their efforts to make the most of the brief haitus in Congress and the executive departments.

That any effort to prevent war-time prohibition and the national prohibition act from officiating as Siamese twins on every morsel and economic ground will be fought to the utmost by the prohibition leaders is made manifest by the firm positions declared today.

One of the pronunciamentoes is found in the notice served by the Board of Temperance Prohibition and Public Morals, to the effect that no foe to the drys can hope to be President of the United States. The announcement is found in a two-column article in the clip sheet of the board, which Dr. Clarence True Wilson is secretary.

NEGRO SOLDIER KILLED

With Others He Attacked Trainmen; Brakeman Uses Shotgun

Richmond, Va., July 5.—An unidentified negro soldier was shot and instantly killed early Thursday on the Southern Railroad, 20 miles from Richmond. The negro left here on a train loaded with troops, who got into a general fight and four were ejected. They boarded a freight train headed for Richmond. One of them demanded that the engineer surrender the engine to him.

The engineer and fireman were driven away by the negroes, and the brakeman, seeing the attack, fired a shotgun at one of the assailants. His head was blown off and the engneer was wounded. The other three negroes disappeared.

ASKS THAW BE EXTRADITED

Wanted in New York for Alleged Attack on Youth Several Years Ago

Harrisburg, Pa., July 5.—Papers asking extradition of Harry K. Thaw from Pennsylvania to New York, where he is charged with an assault on Frederick Gump, a Kansas City youth at the Hotel McAlpin several years ago, were received at the office of Governor William C. Sproul this week. The papers come from District Attorney Swann, of New York City, and are signed by Governor Smith, of New York.

No motion will be taken this week, as Governor Sproul is away. In the meantime Attorney General William I. Schaffer is reviewing the papers in the requisition asked of Governor Brumbaugh shortly after the Thaw indictment. At that time Attorney General Francis Schunk Brown advised against granting the requisiton. Thaw is now confined in a sanitarium near Philadelphia after being judged insane. The New York authorities will be given a hearing before any action is taken.

Physicians say he will live, if no complications set in. Last Thursday in Harrisonburg he married Miss Willie Deputy Croushorn is a prosperous farmer.

THEATRES

INGOMAR THEATRE

In the role of Trixie, the shapely, slangy New York chorus girl, vivacious Margarita Fisher at the Ingomar Theatre tonight, has a part that fits her to perfection. It is a role that calls for not only delightful comedy, but for the strongest emotional work of her screen career. It's a long step from tripping the tickle-toe in the tights and abbreviated skirts of a musical comedy queen, to handling a grouchy husband and staging a battle royal with her jealous rival, but Margarita Fisher takes it with the sureness and ease of the finished actress.

GRAND THEATRE

Priscilla Dean, the Universal star, comes of a stage family. Mary Dean, the actress' mother, appeared for many years as "Madame X" in the tragedy of that name which Henry W. Savage produced. Priscilla Dean will appear at the Grand Theatre in a crook role in "The Exquisite Thief," her newest screen play. Also Ham Bud comedy.

RICHMOND—"Common Clay."

"Common Clay," at the Richmond today featuring Fanny Ward, deals with one of the gravest problems of big cities—The Girl, full of the joy of life, reared in poor surroundings and without proper parental direction.

It is a womans play through and through, pulsating with feeling and tense with the anguish of tortured souls. It has been said that it awakens in the breast of the spectator that pity, which Dr. Gilbert Murray says, "is the kingdom of heaven within us fighting against the brute power of the world."

Chautauqua's Value Today

"During the war President Wilson looked upon and counted the Chautauqua as an integral part of our National Defense.' He appealed personally to the people to support it as a public duty.

"In the period of reconstruction the platform is offering the only sane, sensible and lasting solution for our industrial and social unrest—that is a sane, calm and reasonable discussion of the problems now up for solution. Under the Chautauqua tents the people are coming together for the purpose of reasoning together.

"We have started out to take our message of hope and aspiration to the men in the field, in the factory, yes, out in the forest. We are now putting oil in toil and laughter in work.

"The Chautauqua has done more than any other force to break down the Imaginary Chinese Wall that all too often and all too long has separated the town from the country.

"Ex-Governor Eberhart, of Minnesota, has said: 'If I had my way I would rather have had the honor of being the father of the Chautauqua movement than any other one started in America.'

"The Chautauqua is now doing its share to make not only democracy a workable reality at home, but it is also helping to carry the blessings of education, entertainment, relaxation, pure amusement and purposeful fun to all the world.

"The Chautauqua taught the youth of America that men and women are more than dollars and cents; that human lives are more than mere things; that ideals are more potent than armaments; that the masses are more powerful than potentates and armies; that, when the spirit is right and noble, the deeds will follow as effect follows cause.

"The Chautauqua has helped to give the old world a new vision and has helped to recruit the millions of brave boys who put that vision into purpose."

The Brooks Orchestral Club

A Talented Company of Individual Artists Equally Effective in Solo and Ensemble.

THE BROOKS ORCHESTRAL CLUB

The Brooks Orchestral Club is the premier Chautauqua Orchestra. For four years it has been presenting capably and attractively the better things in music and the universal approval which has attended its efforts is abundant proof of its success.

The members of the club are picked from soloists of wide concert and lyceum experience in America's best bands and orchestras.

Mary Lutz Brooks is the director. She is a young violinist whose appearances in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Atlanta, San Francisco, and other cities were topics of discussion in local musical circles for months afterward. Harry Higbie Brooks has appeared with Liberati's band, Kryl's band, the Kilties, and with Arthur Pryor's famous band, as a cornetist.

Mr. Howard C. Evarts, the flutist, was formerly with "The Famous Innes Band." Mr. Harry J. Geilhufe is the drummer. He is one of the best tympanists and drummers in the country. Miss Louise Arnold is the cellist, a charming musician and personality. Miss Lela Young is the second violinist. She is a capable instrumentalist and combines well with the company. The pianist is Miss Royce, without whom the company would be incomplete.

A concert of the Brooks Orchestral Club has the noise left out and the music put in; it is a pleasing program by an organization of soloists each an artist on his particular instrument and yet capable of perfect ensemble work with the other members of the company. A real treat is in store for local music lovers when this group of musicians appears on the Chautauqua program.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
